ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (November 10, 2014) – Global Spectrum, operators of Boardwalk Hall, have confirmed that the first quarter of 2015 will feature the most concerts booked in the first quarter of any year at the historic entertainment venue since the arena was renovated in 2001.The currently announced line-up includes the following with more to come:

- Katt Williams: Born Again… Again – January 3
- All-Stars of Hip Hop – January 18
- Linkin Park – January 23
- Fleetwood Mac: On With The Show – January 24
- NAPA Auto Parts Presents Indoor Auto Racing – January 30 & 31
- Harlem Globetrotters – March 5
- Miranda Lambert – March 27

"2015 is shaping up to be a very busy year at Boardwalk Hall with many events already booked and several more that will be announced in the coming months," said Fran Rodowicz, General Manager, Global Spectrum at Boardwalk Hall. "We look forward to hosting a diverse lineup of concerts, family shows and sporting events that will give everyone a reason to visit us in Atlantic City."

In addition, the CRDA has an agreement with Live Nation to bring several big-name shows to Boardwalk Hall in 2015.

Beach Concerts Return

Blake Shelton and Lady Antebellum rocked the beach in Atlantic City this summer, and the Atlantic City Alliance (ACA) and Live Nation are ready for more. The organizations are teaming up for two new beach concerts in 2015, with artists, dates and details to be announced.
